

2022 voter guide

Pierce County/Federal

Tribal Members, relatives and friends,

On Election Day, your vote is your voice.

We need everyone in Indian Country speaking up on Election Day. If you haven't already registered to vote, we urge you to do it now. In-person registration deadline is Nov. 8. Learn more at VoteWa.gov or Vote.org.

Vote your conscience. We are sharing our recommendations for elections in our immediate area. We have endorsed candidates who support Tribal priorities, such as respect for our sovereignty, and protection of Tribal Gaming and the environment.

This guide does not list party affiliation. We don't care whether a person is a Democrat or a Republican. We support people who support us, our Members and our priorities.

Election Day is Nov. 8. Vote.

In Service,
Your Puyallup Tribal Council

Don't forget, you can drop off your Pierce County Elections ballot in the drop box at the far end of the Tribal Administration parking lot, 3009 E. Portland Ave. Pierce County's ballot drop boxes close at 8 p.m. on Election Night.

MEASURES

Advisory Vote - The advisory vote does not change the outcome of the law. It is essentially a poll to advise the legislature and the public if the law that passed, or tax that was increased, by the legislature has public support or not. It is a non-binding vote.

Advisory Vote No. 39 - No recommendations, vote your conscience.

Advisory Vote No. 40 - No recommendations, vote your conscience.
